

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Quincy Cass Associates, Inc. Welcomes Deanna M. Adams, CFA

Los Angeles (October 3, 2022) – Quincy Cass Associates, Inc. (QCA), welcomes Deanna M. Adams, CFA, as their new Chief Investment Officer. “Ms. Adams will be responsible for providing comprehensive wealth management advice at QCA and QCA Capital Management,” announced Mark C. Minichiello, chief executive officer. Mr. Minichiello will continue to oversee portfolio management with the assistance of Deanna. Ms. Adams will also work closely with QCA clients and their advisors to develop financial strategies to help them meet their current needs and plan for their long-term objectives.

Ms. Adams has more than 17 years of experience in investments, sales and risk management. Prior to joining Quincy Cass Associates, Adams spent 10 years in Singapore covering the emerging and developing markets in the Asian Pacific region.

Prior to Singapore, Deanna lived in Sydney, Australia where her financial sector experience included founding roles in the launch of two global macro hedge funds as well as equity research at Macquarie Securities where she was a writing analyst on the industry-ranked healthcare team. In 2006, Ms. Adams earned her Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA) designation and is a member of the CFA Society of Los Angeles, the Women in Institutional Investments Network (WIIN), 100 Women in Finance, and Women in ETFs.

Ms. Adams holds an MBA from the Richard Ivey School of Business at the University of Western Ontario as well as a BSc from McGill University.

“We are thrilled to have Deanna on our team,” said Mr. Minichiello. “She is exactly the type of Chief Investment Officer QCA needed to take us into our next 100 years!”
