Quincy Cass Associates celebrates it's 100-year anniversary!

Los Angeles, Calif. – Quincy Cass Associates to celebrate its 100-year anniversary on February 14, 2022. In celebrating this historic achievement, we will continue to evaluate every facet of our firm and your investments, in an effort to improve our high-performance standards.

But first, Quincy Cass Associates would like to begin by saying THANK YOU! We could not have achieved this amazing milestone without your trust. We appreciate that you have chosen to work with us, and we want you to know that we are committed to confirming your choice on a daily basis. Our success is defined by how well we exceed your expectations!

As we have served clients over the past 100 years, we look forward to our next 100 years. To that end, we welcome any client referrals whether they be siblings, family, friends or business relationships, and given the recent volatility in the markets we would love to speak with them and see if we can be of service to achieve their financial goals.
